Please read over our policy:

If there are no-shows or last minute changes, I understand that I am still responsible for the payment of these services. I can add or eliminate services up until a month before the wedding. The start time is to be decided by Ashley Nicole based on the number of people receiving services. There should be a designated styling area, next to an outlet, free of foot traffic. Separate bedrooms or bathrooms are preferred. The balance, cash (preferred) or check, is due to the stylist that performed the service at the time the service is completed on the day of the wedding.

Everyone's hair should be dry and free of products at the time of the stylist's arrival unless instructed otherwise. All clients receiving services should be there at the start time in order to ensure a smooth timely process. It is recommended that everyone has a photo to show to their stylist of the look they are trying to achieve. There are NO re-dos of the style received unless the client pays a second fee.

You can save your date at any time by signing this contract and mailing a check of $50 which is non-refundable but can be used towards your day of total to P.o. box 516 Delaware city,de 19706.
